

TINY ART SHOW

Rules & Guidelines

Public display: June 19 - July 31

The Tiny Art Show is a summer-long community art exhibition. The twist? All art must be tiny! Kids, teens, and adults are all invited to participate. Tiny art will be on display throughout the summer reading program.

- All artwork must be on a 4"x4" canvas (provided by the library) and able to be displayed on an easel or flat against a wall.
- Other than food, all materials are welcome to be used in the creation of your art.
- Artwork and the titles of the artwork must be appropriate for all ages.
- Library staff reserve the right to reject any art that does not follow these guidelines.
- Canvas kits (canvas, paintbrush and rules) will be available beginning Monday, June 12.
- Art will start being displayed Monday, June 19. Art can be dropped off any time between June 12 and July 24. The sooner the better.
- If you want your art back at the end of the show, pick up between August 1 and 7.
- Fill out the entry form below and turn it in with your art.
